

I am opposed to media consolidation because it would limit our sources of information and could limit control of the media to fewer people.
It is already too difficult in this country to obtain differing viewpoints on important topics.